

Fourteenth Annual IAEP Golf Classic!

Thursday September 6, 2018
White Deer Run Golf Club
250 West Gregg's Parkway, Vernon Hills, IL

The Illinois Association of Environmental Professionals (IAEP) hopes you will join us again for this special event! This Golf Fundraiser is to benefit the IAEP Environmental Student Research Grant Program. Thanks to many of you who attended the previous outings, we are now awarding grants to students conducting environmental research. This outing will provide the perfect forum through which you can support the environmental research of deserving students, while being able to network and communicate your company's message to leaders in the business and educational communities.
